

The Jamestown Audio Tour gives detailed information about historic Jamestown, ND. This audio tour is accessible to anyone with a phone and has been since 2016.

You can venture to the location of the tour point or listen to the entire listing from afar.

Stops "Sports and School"

Jamestown has a sporting legacy, and is home to the North Dakota Sports Hall of Fame inside the Civic Center, and takes great pride in its educational institutions. Visit Jack Brown Stadium near McElroy Park on 3rd Street Southeast and Jamestown University on 6000 College Lane.

450 – Welcome to the ND Sports Hall of Fame

451 – Darin Erstad

452 – Travis Hafner

500 – Jamestown Greats

501 – Baseball History

502 – Darin Erstad – Jack Brown Stadium Memories

503 – Travis Hafner – Jack Brown Stadium Memories

551 – Historic Vorhees Chapel

552 – University of Jamestown History

Stops "Outside of Jamestown"

Learn about the surrounding Jamestown area by listening to these regional stop points.

650 – Bootleg or Bust at Pelican Point & Lakeside Marina Campground, north of Jamestown on HWY 281

651 – Historic Bike Ride at Overlook & Pipestem Bike Trails, north of Jamestown on HWY 281

750 – Welcome to the Midland Continental Railroad Museum, Wimbledon, ND

751 – How Two Men Survived a Blizzard in this Boxcar, Wimbledon, ND

Get started by dialing 701-712-9329, then press the stop number followed by the # key.

www.DiscoverJamestownND.com

Jamestown, ND AUDIO TOUR

Learn about the history and legends surrounding Jamestown, North Dakota by calling the

Audio Tour

Dial the number followed by the STOP number and the # key.

CALL
TO HEAR
701-712-9329

Stops on "the Hill"

All the stops listed below can be found on what the locals call "The Hill." These locations include the Buffalo Herd, Frontier Village, World's Largest Buffalo, and the National Buffalo Museum located on 17th Street Southwest.

- 1 – Welcome to Jamestown
- 101 – Thirsty?
- 102 – Chief Joseph
- 103 – German Saboteurs
- 104 – Death of a Railroad
- 105 – Frontier Cabin
- 106 – Making Deals!
- 107 – Boxcar to Basilica
- 108 – Outlaws
- 109 – The Blind Pig
- 110 – Frontier Trades
- 111 – Western Artist Kirkpatrick
- 112 – Louis L'Amour
- 113 – Limpy Jack
- 115 – Frontier Coach
- 116 – How High can Bison Jump?
- 117 – World's Largest Buffalo
- 118 – Artist Elmer Peterson
- 150 – White Buffalo
- 152 – Evolution of Bison
- 153 – Buffalo Hunt
- 154 – The Bison Bone Trade
- 155 – Saving the Buffalo
- 156 – White Cloud
- 157 – Predators of the Buffalo
- 158 – The TeePee
- 159 – Buffalo or Bison?
- 160 – Buffalo Trivia
- 162 – The Sacred Relationship
- 700 - How Jamestown Got its Name

More resources available at Jamestown Visitor Center
404 Louis L'Amour Lane
701-251-9145

Stops "Jamestown Arts and History"

Jamestown is rich in the humanities. The stops listed below showcase the care for history and passion for the arts. Many locations can be found within a few blocks of one another in Downtown Jamestown starting on 1st Ave South.

- 200 – Welcome to the St. James Basilica
- 201 – Mary Young speaks about St. James Basilica
- 202 – History of St. James Basilica by Mary Young
- 250 – Louis L'Amour and the Alfred Dickey Library
- 251 – Jamestown-Boyhood Home of Louis L'Amour
- 252 – When Louis Was Home
- 253 – Gladstone Inn History and its Performers
- 300 – Welcome to the Historic Franklin School
- 301 – Basement Orientation
- 303 – 2nd Floor Orientation

- 351 – Prairie Grass Ballet by Owen Fritts
- 352 – Orlady Building Fire
- 400 – Why the Gazebo?
- 401 – Welcome to the Stutsman County Museum
- 402 – Basement Orientation
- 403 – Main Floor Orientation
- 404 – 2nd Floor Orientation
- 405 – 3rd Floor Orientation
- 406 – Front Porch Chats
- 600 – Fort Seward History
- 601 – Trouble in Jim-Town
- 701 – Where Two Rivers Meet at Klaus Park
- 702 – Bicentennial Eagle at 116 1st St East
- 703 – Historic 1883 Stutsman County Courthouse
- 704 – How the Cupola Landed in Zonta Park

